

COPE Network

2705 Virginia Ave, Kalamazoo

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

PREVENTION AND EDUCATION NETWORK

Copenetwork.org

COPE is a network of people in recovery, people seeking recovery, professionals, community leaders, local businesses, artists, teachers, neighbors, families, and friends coming together to support the recovery community.

COPE Mission - To inspire a community that supports understanding and compassion for people affected by substance use disorder and their families. Accepting substance use disorder as a medical illness that can be overcome.

COPE Vision - Creating compassionate community

COPE Goal – to offer people affected by substance use disorder resources and connection in the community enhancing recovery opportunity.

- Provide activities enlarging their communities beyond other people affected with substance use disorder (SUD)
- Provide education programs strengthening recovery opportunity
- Offer connections to resources supporting a healthy recovery community

Currently we offer activities to engage people in recovery, family, friends, and the community. “Building Connections” programs offered, Tai Chi, Yoga, Acu-detox acupuncture, art projects, yarn crafts, more to come. Future activities include weekend movie nights and game nights.

We can provide educational sessions including:

Adverse Childhood Experience
Overdose Prevention – Substance Use Disorder—free naloxone kit
School education – youth oriented education drug prevention – family perspective

Community Collaboration and workshop space rental

For more information contact Nancy King 269-580-8290, email: copenetworkswmi@gmail.com

*Community Outreach Prevention and Education Network
a 501c3 tax deductible organization*

COPE Network

2705 Virginia Ave, Kalamazoo

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

PREVENTION AND EDUCATION NETWORK

Copenetwork.org

COPE is a network of people in recovery, people seeking recovery, professionals, community leaders, local businesses, artists, teachers, neighbors, families, and friends coming together to support the recovery community.

COPE Mission - To inspire a community that supports understanding and compassion for people affected by substance use disorder and their families. Accepting substance use disorder as a medical illness that can be overcome.

COPE Vision - Creating compassionate community

COPE Goal – to offer people affected by substance use disorder resources and connection in the community enhancing recovery opportunity.

- Provide activities enlarging their communities beyond other people affected with substance use disorder (SUD)
- Provide education programs strengthening recovery opportunity
- Offer connections to resources supporting a healthy recovery community

Currently we offer activities to engage people in recovery, family, friends, and the community. “Building Connections” programs offered, Tai Chi, Yoga, Acu-detox acupuncture, art projects, yarn crafts, more to come. Future activities include weekend movie nights and game nights.

We can provide educational sessions including:

Adverse Childhood Experience
Overdose Prevention – Substance Use Disorder—free naloxone kit
School education – youth oriented education drug prevention – family perspective

Community Collaboration and workshop space rental

For more information contact Nancy King 269-580-8290, email: copenetworkswmi@gmail.com

*Community Outreach Prevention and Education Network
a 501c3 tax deductible organization*